

In Loving Memory
of

Eleanor A. Wideman
1903 - 1992

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

If when you give the best of your service,
Telling the world that the Savior has come;
Be not dismayed when men don't believe you,
He Understands, He'll say "Well Done."

Oh, when I come to the end of my journey,
Weary of life and the battle is won;
Carrying the Staff and Cross of Redemption,
He'll Understand and say, "Well Done."

Misunderstood, the Savior of sinners,
Hung on the cross, He was God's only Son;
Oh! hear Him calling His Father in Heaven,
"Not my will, but Thine be done."

If when this life of Labor is ended,
And the reward of the race you have run;
Oh! the sweet rest prepared for the faithful,
Will be his blest and final "Well Done."

But if you try and fail in your trying,
Hands sore and scarred from the work you've begun;
Take up your cross, run quickly to meet Him,
He Understands, He'll say "Well Done."
